

KNP Konnections

From Our Editor, Nancy Allenby

WE'RE JUMPING FULL-FORCE INTO FALL! KNP volunteers have picked apples, made cider, delivered farm harvest to food pantries, stacked fire wood, and generally readied folks in our community for cooler weather. Many thanks to our awesome volunteers for ALL that you do...ALL year!

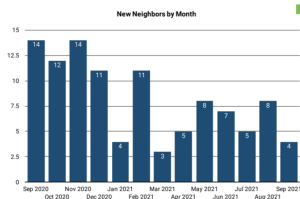

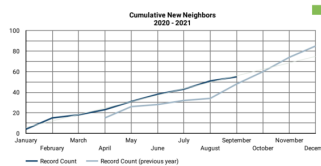

New Board Member Andy Jeffrey

ANDY IS A MAN OF MANY TALENTS and he's using them to connect KNP to employment and business opportunities for neighbors and students, a team working on community resiliency through UNH, and the Kearsarge Food Hub. Throw in apple picking and cider making with a Colby-Sawyer volunteerism class and Windy Hill preschoolers, and you get a snapshot of some of the many ways Andy broadens KNP's reach into the Kearsarge community. Thanks for joining KNP's leadership!

Kudos to KREM on 20 Years!

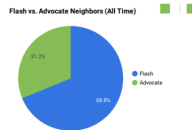

KEARSARGE REGIONAL ECUMENICAL MINISTRIES is a valued KNP partner! We celebrate with them as they mark twenty years of meeting emergency needs in 13 towns within the Kearsarge/Sunapee area. KREM volunteers respond to referrals to help in critical situations when help from other resources is not available. We appreciate all they do to help our community flourish!

Operations Reports

KNP's TECH GURU GRETA ROBERTS compiles valuable graphics every month to show the KNP Board of Directors how we're doing, helping them visualize the stats. Thanks for doing such a great job of analyzing and sharing this complex information, Greta!

Reaching Out to Town Welfare and Fire Departments

KNP's Communications team

made packets of KNP brochures, magnets and pens and delivered them to area town welfare offices and fire departments. We're grateful that these willing community partners do their best to make sure neighbors in need have the correct information to contact KNP.

Kars for Kearsarge

WE'RE HELPING PEOPLE ONTO THE ROAD TO INDEPENDENCE as Kars for Kearsarge becomes a reality. You can learn more by watching the first episode of The Yankee Chronicle here! More to come on Sept. 30 and Oct. 7.
